

“If a better option comes up, is she free to take it?”

	“Yes”	“No”
Why is this person in prostitution?	because it is the best option among what is available to her	because she is not allowed to choose something else
What will benefit this individual?	more and better options within and outside of the sex industry	freedom so that she can make decisions for herself
How will “rescue” action impact her?	possible criminal record; forced to choose among inferior options	freedom, provided that appropriate support and services are provided
What should society do for this person?	no persecution; make more resources and options available	intervention to restore her freedom; resources to rebuild her life
